SUBJECT: Possible Compromise of Classified Material (U)

Central Intelligence Agency
ATTN: Howard J. Osborn
Director of Security
Washington, D.C. 20505

1. (U) Reference your Memorandum, subject as above, dated 10 November 1971.
2. (C) The following information is provided concerning the possible loss of copy of CONFIDENTIAL CIA Book, "Where's What (U)", to assist in the evaluation of the impact of the possible compromise:
 - a. At an undetermined date in March 1971, a box containing confidential materials was packed by an individual of the Security Investigations Committee of the USAINTS Department of Counterintelligence (DCI), and delivered to a central point within DCI where other boxes were being collected for shipment to Fort Huachuca. No receipt was obtained for this box, and no list of the box's contents was made.
 - b. On 31 March 1971, forty one boxes from DCI were delivered to USAINTS Classified Control Unit (CCU) and receipted for on DA Form 631. The forty one boxes in this shipment were sent by sealed truck and arrived at Fort Huachuca in early April 1971.
 - c. At Fort Huachuca all forty one boxes were signed for by an individual from DCI, who distributed the sealed boxes to the appropriate DCI Committee according to markings on outside of box, without further receipting.
 - d. The individual who packed the box in question, never received certain documents that he recalls packing (including the copy of "Where's What"), and therefore, in early August 1971, reported the box as lost.
3. (U) Amended conclusion to the investigation is as follows: "That the possibility or probability of compromise cannot be precluded beyond a reasonable doubt."
